MEMORANDUM FOR: The Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation

As you will recall, last year, discussions were held between representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Central Intelligence Agency regarding an exchange of information of mutual interest in the field between CIA officers and FBI Legal and Police Attaches. As a result of these conversations, this Agency forwarded to its appropriate field stations, instructions to exchange freely information with the FBI representatives on matters of mutual interest.

Probably through inadvertence, it seems that a reciprocal exchange has not always been made by the Legal Attaches. This has occurred
